Taste Canada Announcement: Welcome to our new English-Language and French-Language Chairs.

We would like to announce the appointment of two Chairs to the Taste Canada team.

Jennifer MacKenzie - English-Language Chair

Jennifer MacKenzie is a Professional Home Economist who wears many aprons as a freelance food writer, café co-owner and media spokesperson with a little event planning added to the mix. She is the author/co-author of six cookbooks and writes and develops recipes for print and online publications. As well, she has tested and recipe-edited over a hundred cookbooks on every subject from soup to coconut. Serving two years as a Taste Canada judge, Jennifer now channels her passion for Canadian cookbooks and applies her varied skills as a member of the Taste Canada team.

Marie-Serge Blais - French-Language Chair

Marie-Serge Blais is a professional chef with over 15 years' experience teaching the art of cooking. She works with La Table des Chefs and Moisson Québec and loves to share her passion for cooking with those that want to learn. A self-proclaimed addict to all things travel, wine, and gastronomy, her career brought her to France, appearing on television, as well as CKRL radio Quebec weekly programs. She has been part of the jury for Taste Of Canada – The Food Writing Awards from 2012 to 2015.
